The Council will always give guidance on personnel data to employees through the employee handbook.

The Council will ensure that individuals on whom personal information is kept are aware of their rights and have easy access to that information on request.

Making Information Available

The Publication Scheme is a means by which the Council can make a significant amount of information available routinely, without waiting for someone to specifically request it. The scheme is intended to encourage local people to take an interest in the work of the Council and its role within the community.

In accordance with the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, this Scheme specifies the classes of information which the Council publishes or intends to publish. It is supplemented with an Information Guide which will give greater detail of what the Council will make available and hopefully make it easier for people to access it.

All formal meetings of the council and its committees are subject to statutory notice being given on notice boards and the council's website. The Council publishes an annual programme each year. All formal meetings are open to the public and press and reports to those meetings and relevant background papers are available for the public to see. The Council welcomes public participation and has a public participation session on each council and committee meeting. Details can be seen in the Council's Standing Orders, which are available on its website or at its offices.

Occasionally, council or committees may need to consider matters in private. Examples of this are matters involving personal details of staff, or a particular member of the public, or where details of commercial/contractual sensitivity are to be discussed. This will only happen after a formal resolution has been passed to exclude the press and public and reasons for the decision are stated. Minutes from all formal meetings, including the confidential parts are public documents.

The Openness of Local Government Bodies Regulations 2014 requires written records to be made of certain decisions taken by officers under delegated powers. These are not routine operational and administrative decisions such as giving instructions to the workforce or paying an invoice approved by Council, but would include urgent action taken after consultation with the Chairman, such as responding to a planning application in advance of Council. In other words, decisions which would have been made by Council or committee had the delegation not been in place.

The 2014 Regulations also amend the Public Bodies (Admission to Meetings) Act 1960 to allow the public or press to film, photograph or make an audio recording of council and committee meetings normally open to the public. The Council will where possible facilitate such recording unless it is being disruptive. It will also take steps to ensure that children, the vulnerable and members of the public who object to being filmed are protected without undermining the broader purpose of the meeting.

The Council will be pleased to make special arrangements on request for persons who do not have English as their first language or those with hearing or sight difficulties.

Disclosure Information

The Council will, as necessary, undertake checks on both staff and Members with the Disclosure and Barring Service and will comply with their Code of Conduct relating to the secure storage, handling, use, retention and disposal of Disclosures and Disclosure Information. It will include an appropriate operating procedure in its integrated quality management system.

Data Transparency

The Council has resolved to act in accordance with the Code of Recommended Practice for Local Authorities on Data Transparency (September 2011). This sets out the key principles for local authorities in creating greater transparency through the publication of public data and is intended to help them meet obligations of the legislative framework concerning information.

“Public data” means the objective, factual data on which policy decisions are based and on which public services are assessed, or which is collected or generated in the course of public service delivery.

The Code will therefore underpin the Council’s decisions on the release of public data and ensure it is proactive in pursuing higher standards and responding to best practice as it develops.

The principles of the Code are:

Demand led: new technologies and publication of data should support transparency and accountability

Open: the provision of public data will be integral to the Council’s engagement with residents so that it drives accountability to them.

Timely: data will be published as soon as possible following production.

Government has also issued a further Code of Recommended Practice on Transparency, compliance of which is compulsory for parish councils with turnover (gross income or gross expenditure) not exceeding £25,000 per annum. These councils will be exempt from the requirement to have an external audit from April 2017. DSJTC exceeds this turnover but will never the less ensure the following information is published on its Website for ease of access:

- All transactions above £100.
- End of year accounts
- Annual Governance Statements
- Internal Audit Reports
- List of Councillor or Member responsibilities
- Details of public land and building assets
- Draft minutes of Council and committees within one month
- Agendas and associated papers no later than three clear days before the meeting.

SECURITY INCIDENT RESPONSE POLICY

1. A data breach of any size is a crisis management situation, which could put an entire council at risk. Data security is not an IT issue, it is an organisational risk, and breach response should involve people from a number of roles across the council.

Security Breach Response

2. Whenever a data breach (or potential data breach) is identified the Clerk is to be notified immediately. If the Clerk is unavailable, the Chair or Vice-Chair is to be informed. The person notified of the breach is to take the following actions as soon as possible:
 - a. Complete the attached Data Breach Reporting Form and ascertain as much information as possible regarding the breach, for example:
 - i. Name of person reporting the breach.
 - ii. How the breach was identified and when (date and time).
 - iii. Time the breach was reported to the council.
 - iv. The nature of the data that has been breached.
 - v. When the data was breached.
 - vi. How the data was breached and by whom (if appropriate).
 - vii. Unintended recipients of the data (if known).
 - viii. The potential damage to the individual whose data has been breached and the council (if known).
 - ix. Any actions taken to close the breach and repair any damage to any individual.
 - x. Any other relevant information.
 - b. DO NOT DESTROY ANY POTENTIAL EVIDENCE.
 - c. Check the physical security of any premises if appropriate.
 - d. Report full details of the breach to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) if required within 72 hours of the breach being reported to the council at www.ico.org.uk or by calling 0303 123 1113. Guidance on the types of breaches to be reported to the ICO can be found on their website. Even if the breach is not required to be reported to the ICO the council should nevertheless follow this action plan to identify and learn any lessons that could prevent a more serious breach of personal data in the future.
 - e. Take any actions as advised by the ICO.
 - f. Keep a full detailed log of the dates and times of all actions taken.
 - g. Inform all other council members (and Clerk if not already aware) of the data breach and any actions taken/to be taken and by whom.
 - h. If appropriate, report to the police.
 - i. Inform the council's insurers and ensure they are content with the plan of action.
 - j. Identify and take any other immediate actions required to close the data breach and maintain security of other personal data held by the council.
 - k. Ensure the subject(s) of the data breach are informed as soon as is appropriate (seek advice of ICO, insurers, police etc.) of both the breach and the information that has been leaked.
 - l. If felt necessary, convene an emergency council meeting to discuss and record the breach and, if required, appoint two councillors not involved in the breach to investigate the full facts surrounding the breach and potential liabilities to third parties (if no obvious candidates are available, consideration to appointing councillors from

- another authority should be considered). The council should also consider whether it is necessary to seek any specialist legal and/or technical (e.g. forensic IT) advice.
- m. The investigators should produce a full report outlining the facts of how the data was breached along with recommendations to ensure there is no repeat breach and, also, whether the council should consider any action against either the Clerk or any members.
 - n. Seek the advice of DMBC re the best way to handle and control any potential press interest.
